Under this garment is a similar one, either plain or figured, worn next to the body, for the Obolce of routes, and only one change Lapp never wears linen underclothing. The trousers are of white woolen goods, rather parrow and reaching to the ankles, where they are tied inside the shoes with long slender shoestrings. Over these drawers are usually worn leggings of thin, tanned skins, reaching from the ankles to the knees. Stockings the Lapp never wears. He fills the upper curving tip of his shoes with a sort of grass, which is gathered in summer and beaten to make it soft and pliable. The winter costume only differs from that worn in summer in that every piece is made of reindeer skin with the hair on.

The dress of the women differs very slightly from that worn by the men. The smock is somewhat longer and is made without the big standing collar, instead of which a kerchief or cap is worn about the neck. To the woven and often silver ornamented girdle hang a knife, scissors, key, needle and thread. The head covering is not only different in the two sexes, but also differs according to the locality.

A FAMOUS SONG WRITER. Foster Was Called the Edgar Allan

Poe of Music.

Stephen Collins Foster, the most popular of American song writers and componers, has been called the Edgar Allan Poe of music. Like Poe, he was a genius. He came of Virginia parentage, received a good education and died in New York Jan. 13, 1864, in the height of his fame, a penniless wanderer. He was born in Pfttsburg July 4

He learned easily, and after receive ing private lessons in music and drawtrig : mucht himself : to : play on the dageolet, guitar and banjo. He also deroted mereral years to the voice and plane. Then be turned his attention to composing songs and dialect ballads teen while employed in Louisville Ky. be published the serenade "Open Thy Lattice Love," which was instantly successful, Then followed "Uncle Ned." "O Susannah," which were sung by a minstrel troupe, and Stephen Foster became famous far and wide."

Marrying, in 1844, Jennie McDowell, he came to New York, where in rapid succession he supplied his publishers with songs which became famous-"Old Kentucky Home," "Massa's In De Cold, Cold Ground," "Old Dog Tray." "Willie, We Have Missed You" and "Sweet Ellen Bayne." But the song that is best known in many lands is "The Suwanee River," for which Christie's minstrels gave him at the begin ning $50. In addition he received rovlow's Soothing Syrup, " and take no copies and the honor of knowing that eminent singers like Jenny Lind sang it to applauding thousands.

His last song, a negro melody, "Old Black Joe." is still a favorite. A fourth of his 150 songs were in negro dialect, among which were "Nellie Bly," "Nell Was a Lady" and "Nancy Tile."

THE ELYSEE PALACE

Checkered Career of the White House of France.

The Elysee palace, situated in the Rue Faubourg Saint-Honore, is a cross between a country house and a hotel. It has had a checkered career since its erection in 1718 and has harbored some queer characters. Louis V. presented it to Mme. de Pompadour. Who knows how many lettres de cachet went out lampooned her? Under Louis XVI. It was called the Elysee Bourbon. During the revolution it became national property, was put up for sale, found no purchaser and was turned into a goverament printing office. During the directoire there were gay doings in the fine old rooms, and the merveilleuses and incroyables danced and gambled from sunset to sunrise. The rooms were let to a syndicate who made a large fortune out of the speculation. Since then the palace has been occupied by Murat, Napoleon I., Louis Bonaparte and Queen Hortense, Alexander I. of Russia and the Duc de Berri. After the revolution of 1830 it remained unoccupied until Louis Napoleon made it his residence while he was president of the republic. Nearly all the subsequent presidents of the present republic have added to it. The bourg, called by the scoffers "the monkey palace," was the work of Carnot. His also is the large ballroom. The left wing was built by Louis Napoleon, and Grevy added a room overlooking the garden. None of the presidents seem to fancy its state bedroom, nor do they write at the Louis XVI, table, ornamented with brass work chiseled by Gouttiere. They have one and all preferred to furnish small rooms away from the solemn state apartments and use an ordinary desk such as we find in any office. - Boston Transcript. Lincoln the Lawyer.

It is conceded by all his contemporaries that Lincoln was the best all around jury lawyer of his day in Illinels. Undoubtedly his knowledge of human nature played an important part in his success. He possessed another quality, however, which is almest if not quite as essential in jury work, and that is clearness and simplicity of statement. His logical mind marshaled facts in such orderly sequence and he interpreted them in such simple language that a child could follow him through the most complicated cause, and his mere recital of the issues had the force of argument.-Frederick Trevor Hill in Century.

An Explorer's Stratagem. Bir Harry Johnston, the famous explorer, once escaped from a very tight had surrounded his tent, into which, before rushing it, they sent an envoy. The envoy was told the smallpox was in the camp, and a wretched Albino five minutes the scared tribesmen had vanished.
